

Hassan, Sheeba. A pronouncing dictionary of Kashmiri language. Chicago: South Asia Language Resource Center, University of Chicago, 2010.

Prepared under a grant from the South Asia Language Resource Center at the University of Chicago. Funding for the Center was from the U.S. Department of Education under Title VI.

This basic dictionary of Kashmiri language is useful in learning the pronunciation of Kashmiri words with a native-speaker model. It is the most extensive web-based pronouncing dictionary of the language. The author's pronunciations were recorded digitally at optimal levels. A pronouncing dictionary of Kashmiri language can be incorporated as a module in pedagogical resources for the Kashmiri language.
